An Earth where there is no war and nothine is a real harmony - sharing together in unity.

Facing through radical trust, allowing it flows that the dark is pierced by the light and has no ignorance transformed into insight, love and wisdom.

New leaders with spiritual vision, compassionately inspired by sharing conviction to all life and a genuine caring for self, humanity, and the environment lead the world to unanimously agreed upon climate of peace.

Religion is no longer taught over, but learned as experiential discovery.

Freedom exists where One One level Light no death - no stress - no anger - no economy - one humanity.

Diversity is celebrated within the uniqueness of each individual culture, race and belief.

Generosity and gratitude replace greed, and the desire to accumulate out of fear, is replaced by knowing that all is possible.

Spent time is knowledge to the extent it is given, allowing for joyful discovery.

The creative potential of each person's abilities, facilitates expansion of joy and connection.

All learning, education and development, enhances creativity and imagination.

Sound thought, light feeling, images and colors are understood as part of creation to manifest reality.

Love is intended to be the vision of life and joy, the blueprint for achievement.

Peace, compassion and forgiveness were primary and main connection.

Identity is a purpose in an evolving world, the ever evolving mystery of the New moment.

Time is seen as a dimensional identity where the New creates, attraction for new and retention of the old.

Nothing is Light.

Light is the interplay of the three spheres from the known crossed Love.

Light is the breath of The Divine.

In Light are the colors of all Life, always, everywhere, always.

Love is All There Is.

An openness to your heart, In Peace, In Love.

Know that you are loved beyond measure.

Know that we are one in a New Earth.

When we all celebrate our magnificent

Divinity and it will be.

The White spiritual path is not walking, or individualism.

As we walk our individual dream - the world dream unfolds.

Our intentions create our reality and we create manifest our creation.

The Celtic spiritual path is from the Celtic Prayer Ring, which encompasses this Vision.

As the prayer Ring flows to the world, they discover their creation to manifest themselves in a New Earth.
